THE GOEBEL LAW NOTHING DOING YET

Was Ably Exposed in Congress by Mayor Yeiser Has Had to Send for Official Notice of Change.

Made a Speech Against Seating Rhea, From the Third District of Kentucky.

MR. RHEA SPOKE FOR HIMSELF NO OTHER APPOINTMENTS MADE.

Washington, March 23.—Mr. Boreing of Kentucky injected an attack on the Goebel election law into the discussion of the Moss-Rhea contested election case from the Third Kentucky district, which again occupied the attention of the house yesterday. He declared the Goebel law was enacted to "crush the public will," and which, he said, was used to turn out duly elected state officers and place in power defeated candidates. He said it made the election machinery of the state an adjunct to the Democratic organization. Under it the Republicans had been able to elect only thirty members of the legislature out of 100, although Beckham had carried the state by only 3,500 plurality. The Goebel law was so obnoxious and outrageous, he said, that within six months after it was stated that it would stand forever as a monument to the memory of its authors, the Kentucky legislature was convened to repeal its most offensive features.

Mr. Rhea, the sitting member, closed for his side of the case with an appeal in his own behalf. An attempt was made to secure a postponement of the closing arguments until today, owing to the slim attendance, but Mr. Mann objected. In opening Mr. Rhea declared that he had desired the postponement in order that he might present the reasons why a great injustice should not be done to Kentucky, and to a respectable number of the jury who were to return the verdict in the case.

Mr. Rhea drew a round of applause from his party colleagues when he declared that if he believed he had been returned to congress by fraud, injustice or partisanship, he would soon to hold a seat in the house.

Referring to Mr. Boreing's attack on the elections in Kentucky, he said he regretted that his colleague had played the part he had. "I shall not say anything unkind of or about him," he said, "nor against his political associates in Kentucky, and I will not be taken away from the issue before the house further than to say that his speech disclosed the fact that he is both partisan and ignorant of the election laws of Kentucky."

Mr. Rhea declared that the law which lodged the final canvass of the election returns in the general assembly in Kentucky had existed ever since the state had been a state, and that if William Goebel had never lived the law which was invoked and which settled the contest of 1899 would have been the same.

Mr. Rhea declared that the Republicans controlled election machinery in four of the five election districts over which there were disputes.

Mr. Bowie of Alabama, a member of the committee which reported the case, argued in favor of sustaining the contention of the minority that Mr. Rhea was entitled to retain his seat.

Mr. Powers of Maine spoke in support of the view of the majority, that Mr. Moss, the contestant, was entitled to the seat.

Mr. Fox of Mississippi argued in favor of Mr. Rhea's right to retain his seat. He declared that the trial of a contested election case was a farce.

Today the consideration of the contested election case was resumed in the house, and only two hours' debate remained. The first hour was consumed by Mr. Rhea.

TO ELECT A SINKING FUND COMMISSIONER.

Frankfort, March 25.—The state sinking fund commissioners will meet this afternoon to elect a successor to Colonel Eg. Porter Thompson, custodian of the state buildings.

THE CUBAN TRANSFER.

Washington, March 25.—The new date for turning over Onba to the people of the island is May 20.

There is confusion over the transfer of Paducah to the second class. Mayor Yeiser this morning stated that he could not call a meeting of the city council until he is officially notified that Paducah has been transferred by the legislature from the third to the second class. He has sent for this official notice, in order that the council may meet and organize the general council, but the notice is not forthcoming, hence the meeting intended for tonight will probably not take place.

The general council will then have to devote a great deal of time to passing ordinances under the second class charter. The ordinances that were in force under the third class charter, regulating various municipal departments, and defining and punishing various misdemeanors, do not apply now, the third class charter having expired when the city was legally and formally transferred to the second class.

This morning Judge Sanders held an court, because he is in doubt about many things provided in the new charter. He cannot hold court and assess fines under the third class charter, and a great many changes are made in the second class charter, consequently he took a day off to get his bearings and look into the law.

One important change is that petty larceny cases may now be tried in the police court, instead of the county or circuit court, and women can be made to work on the streets in liquidating fines, the same as men.

While penalties are in many cases provided for by statute, there are many that will be entirely changed by the new charter from what they were in the old.

Mayor Yeiser this afternoon announced his complete board of aldermen for the preliminary organization of the general council: Messrs. Ed P. Noble, James O. Martin, Eli G. Boone and George Langstaff.

Mr. Jesse Gilbert, the Mechanicsburg druggist, could not serve because he is only 28 years old, and the charter requires him to be 30. It is understood Former Mayor Lang declined a place on the board.

ANOTHER VETO.

PROBABLE THE CLASSIFICATION BILL WILL BE KILLED.

Frankfort, March 25.—Several prominent citizens of Nicholasville arrived this morning to urge Governor Beckham to veto Mr. Colson's substitution for the senate bill classifying Kentucky towns. They claim that the Clark bill was correct but the senate bill substitute which passed last and takes precedence puts Versailles and Nicholasville into the fifth class, instead of the fourth, where they belong.

The governor will probably veto the bill, which will leave the Clark bill in effect.

STATE SENATOR'S

FATHER DEAD. Daville, March 25.—Mr. E. O. Harris, aged 70, died this morning at his home at Silver Creek, Madison county. He was father of State Senator George Harris.

RINGLING BROTHERS COMING.

Ringling Brothers' big circus, from advance notices, is coming this way, and will probably include Paducah in its tour this spring or summer.

TOWN REPORTED BURNING.

Indianapolis, Ind., March 25.—The town of Brazil, Ind., is reported burning, with several business blocks already in ashes.

COLLINS:—"I got it, I got it not. I got it, I got it not. I got it."

FOX CHASE.

COLONEL H. H. HOBSON LEAVES FOR A THREE DAYS' HUNT IN LYON.

Circuit Clerk H. H. Hobson will leave tonight for Louisville to go on a three days' fox chase.

This morning he received a telegram from Mr. H. S. Smith, the warden, and Mr. George Catlett, the clerk at the penitentiary, saying that they had thirty dogs and would leave tomorrow on a three days' chase. Colonel Hobson was urged to come, and he accepted the invitation. He is expecting a great time, and it will be his first chase in many months.

NOT A CHEAP MAN.

GOEBEL'S ATTORNEY SAYS HE DON'T FIGHT CASES THROUGH PAPERS.

Covington, March 25.—Attorney Louis McQuinn, who is suing the Goebel estate for $5,000 for services in the contest, was in the city today, looking over the papers, and when told that Colonel Tom Campbell would allege in his answer that Goebel hired McQuinn for $1,500, he retorted: "I—I—I'm no cheap man, and don't propose to fight my case in the papers, but will make a hot fight in the courts."

A MINER KILLED.

Williamsburg, March 25.—William Bersoff was killed at Mahan, four miles north of here, last night by Harve Goodman. Both men were drunk when last seen, about dark. They were miners, and it is supposed the tragedy resulted from previous trouble between their families.

A BILL BOARD.

OCCUPANTS OBJECT TO ITS BEING PUT UP ON BROADWAY.

A bill board was hauled around yesterday afternoon to be nailed to the west side of Statz's candy kitchen, on Broadway, near Fifth. The occupants of the building next door objected strenuously, and raised such a kick the workmen were forced to abandon it until a settlement could be made. It is understood a bill-posting company has rented the wall, but the occupants of the other building claim they control everything from the bricks on, which includes the space the board would project from the wall. The question involved is a novel one for Paducah, and the merchants in the vicinity are very much interested in the outcome.

DISTRICT CENSUS.

SCHOOL CHILDREN IN THE COUNTY TO BE ENUMERATED NEXT MONTH.

The blanks for the taking of the district school census in the county will be at the office of the county superintendent on the 1st of the next month, and all chairmen are urged to secure them promptly, so that no delay be occasioned in the taking of the school census, which will begin on the 1st of April.

Superintendent Bagdale thinks that the increase will amount to something like 400.

Warden Henry F. Smith, of Eddyville, was in the city this morning.

IT AFFECTS BARBERS LIST OF EXCEPTIONS

The State Board of Examination to Be Appointed Shortly.

Some of the Provisions of the New State Law—How After the Appointments.

WHAT CITIES ARE MOST AFFECTED

Governor Beckham will in a few days name the members of the Barbers' State Board of Examination, created by the law just passed by the legislature. The law was approved last Friday by the Governor and already there are filed at Frankfort twenty-five or more applications for places on the board, which is to consist of three members. Prior to the adjournment of the legislature friends of many of the applicants in that body were at work to secure the appointments. The positions pay $3 a day and 10 cents mileage. The meetings of the board cannot be held oftener than four times a year, though the length of each session is determined by the board itself. The bill only applies to first, second and third class cities, and Louisville alone has more than one-third of the trade which will be affected. It is estimated that there are fully 3,000 barbers and nearly 2,000 shops in the state to which the law will apply.

As soon as the appointments have been announced by Governor Beckham the board will meet and organize. The first step will be to have printed 5,000 copies of the law, to be distributed among the barbers in the cities affected by the law. Blank certificate forms will then be printed. Under the law, these will be furnished on application, and the payment of $1 by all barbers who are able to show by affidavit that they have worked at the trade for at least three years. No barber will be required to pass an examination if he can show that he has had at least three years of continuous experience at his trade prior to the passage of the law. All barbers serving less than the length of time will, after the law goes into full effect, July 1, be subject to examination. This, of course, applies also to all persons wishing to enter the trade, either from a barbers' school from another state or from a portion of Kentucky not affected by the law. The examination fee costs $5 and the certificate costs another dollar. All barbers entitled to certificates upon the passage of the law are given ninety days from the time the board organizes to file their applications.

Members of the various barbers' unions in the cities that the law affects are delighted with its passage. All the rules for sanitary shops, etc., made by the Board of Barbers are under the State Board of Health. The barbers believe that members of the Board of Health will be in favor of strict sanitary regulations, such as a clean towel with every shave, and powdered alum used instead of lumpy alum.

UNUSUAL REQUEST.

YOUNG MAN WANTED PERMISSION TO SLAY A FELINE.

Marshal Crow has received some queer requests, but the latest came today at noon from a well known young man of the city who is employed in a big clothing store.

About noon the telephone rung, and Marshal Crow was asked for. He was told that a cat had been killing a great many chickens in the neighborhood, and the young man wanted permission to kill it. The permission was cheerfully granted.

DIED OF CONSUMPTION.

Miss Margaret J. Neff died this morning at 8:45 o'clock of consumption at her home on Ninth street after an illness of eight months. She leaves a mother, Mrs. Mary Neff, and sister, Mrs. James Sirk. The funeral will be held at the St. Francis de Sales church at 9 o'clock Thursday morning, burial at Oak Grove.

BIRTHS.

Born to the wife of Mr. Charles Grimm, the popular postman this morning, a fine girl baby.

Underwriters Send a List of the Sixteen Items Not Included.

Tobacco Men Said to Be Disappointed—No No Protest Will Be Made Here Yet

WHAT HAS BEEN EXCEPTED IN IT.

Thus far there has been no action taken by the business men of Paducah in regard to the recent 25 per cent increase in insurance rates, but in many other Kentucky cities there is a well defined move being organized against it. The rates went into effect last week.

The Kentucky and Tennessee Board of Underwriters has just issued a list of exceptions to the increase, there being sixteen items. These, it is claimed, do not cover the bulk of insurance.

It is said the tobacco men are particularly displeased, having been induced to believe that tobacco rates would not be affected by the increase, which was erroneous.

The list of exceptions follows:

1. Whiskey in warehouses, warehouse buildings and storage, charges on distillery premises only.
2. All sprinkled risks, except tobacco and department store stocks.
3. All manufacturing and other special hazards which have been rated under approved schedule within twelve months.
4. Alms houses, infirmaries and hospitals.
5. Brick bank and office buildings occupied exclusively as such, and bank and office furniture and fixtures contained therein.
6. All brick and frame mercantile buildings and contents when occupied exclusively above grade floors as dwellings.
7. Boarding houses where no transient guests are taken.
8. Bridges.
9. Brick mercantile store buildings.
10. Builders' and carpenters' risks.
11. Churches.
12. Convents.
13. Dwelling houses and contents.
14. Private barns and stables and contents.
15. School houses and colleges of all kinds.
16. Court houses and all other state, county or municipal buildings used exclusively as such.

SCHOOL ENTERTAINMENTS

A PROGRAM TO BE GIVEN BY PUPILS OF THE HIGH SCHOOL.

A special program will be arranged shortly for an entertainment at the High School building on the 11th of April, Friday, two weeks from next.

The program will consist of special musical and literary numbers, and will be one of the best ever arranged. The pupils and the principal held a meeting yesterday and decided on the entertainment, which will be the first of the season. Since the piano has been placed in the building, it has made it possible to hold these entertainments and after the initial one they will be held regularly until the close of school.

The entertainment will begin about 1:15 in the afternoon, immediately after the taking up of school, and will continue until the program has been given. The public at large is invited and seats will be plentiful. A large attendance is expected, as no admission will be charged.

Mr J. B. Lord is to Locate a Big Plant in the South

Many Thousand Ties Hardened in a Few Hours Time By the Process

MINOR NEWS OF THE RIVERS TODAY.

Mr. J. B. Lord of the Ayer and Lord Tie company is enroute south to look up a location for a tie preserving plant. He has settled a location at Carbondale if the railroad will fix up the grounds for the company. The location means a great deal for the railroad, as it will secure a great deal of business with the company in this way. Another plant will probably be located near Yazoo City, Miss., and he is on his way to that place now to look over the land. He will probably come to Paducah on his return trip.

These plants are built to season ties. Large cylinders are secured, and into these are placed the black oak ties and all ties of soft wood. All the air is pumped out after the ties have been placed in, and a solution of metals and water poured in and a compressed air pressure administered. The air forces the solution into the ties and makes their life over twice as long.

The plants can "treat" 30,000 ties every eleven hours. It is a big industry and means much for a city.

The prospects for boat building at Howard's during the approaching summer and fall seasons were never more flattering than now. Many old boats are wearing out, and new ones will have to be built to take their places, new trades are being established and the river business generally is increasing, thereby creating a demand in the near future for more boats to look after the business. Captain Koger's new Tennessee river packet and the Stack Lee are well under way. The work on Captain Haliday's steel ferry boat is being pushed forward rapidly. Other contracts are in sight, and Howard will have lots to do for some time to come.

Captain Charles August Franz is probably the youngest steamboat captain on the Ohio river. He is 23 years old, and has been captain of the H. K. Bedford, plying between Wheeling and Parkersburg, for the past eighteen months. He first went on the boat as cabin boy, with his father, who is both steward and proprietor of the boat, and was afterwards made clerk, and finally captain. He was born in Clarington, O., October 6, 1879, but his home is now in Marietta. He neither smokes, chews nor drinks. He was educated at Scioto college.

The steamer Pavonia, of the Ayer-Lord fleet, will arrive out of Tennessee river on the morning of the 27th, and will leave on the morning of the 28th for Pittsburg battle grounds, with Dr. Johnson, of Chicago, and family aboard on a pleasure trip. Dr. Johnson is the son-in-law of Mr. E. Ayer, of the tie firm, and it will be his first trip on a towboat. The boat will make a tow, and the gentleman and his family will get a taste of real river life.

The work on the Paducah Dry Docks has slackened up, and the men are busy repairing the docks today. More work is expected as the weather is now favorable, and the superintendent, Mr. Young Taylor, has several contracts under consideration.

The I. O. K. was tied up yesterday afternoon late by Deputy Marshal Saunders on a claim of $35 for wages, filed by J. W. Peck. The boat is in charge here of John Bryant. The case will be heard this afternoon before Commissioner Gardner.

Observations taken at 7 a. m. River, 30.1 feet on the gauge, a fall of 1.5 in last twenty-four hours. Wind, southeast, a light breeze. Weather, part cloudy and warm. Temperature, 54. Fell, Observer.

The New South leaves for Cairo, Memphis, Vicksburg, New Orleans and all Mississippi river landings on the 30th inst. She is the only side-wheel boat in the trade.

The towboat Inverness and Duffy of the Ayer and Lord fleet will arrive out of Cumberland river the latter part of the week with a large tow of ties.

The steamer Russell Lord left this morning for Mississippi river for the remainder of the season, as previously stated.

The big towboat Joseph B. Williams

Impairment of hearing robs one of many of the joys of life, exposes to danger, interferes with capacity for usefulness, limits ability to transact business and earn a living. Many annually abandon their plans, ambitions and hopes on account of loss of hearing.

In nearly every case of partial or complete deafness there is another feature that to many is more troublesome than the difficulty of hearing—the distracting head noises. These make such an impression on some as to almost drive them insane. The everlasting buzzing, ringing, snapping, rumble or roar, distracts them by day and prevents rest at night.

Nine cases out of ten of head noises and progressive hardness of hearing are due to catarrh of the middle ear, or of the tube leading from it to the throat.

It should be understood and constantly borne in mind that to restore the hearing and silence the distracting noises a treatment is required that will allay inflammation in the eustachian tubes, reduce the congestion and swelling and stop the secretion of mucus so that the tube will be and keep open for the free passage of air into the middle ear. No locally applied medicine will effectually do this, only a searching constitutional alternative and resolute will cure catarrh in the deep recesses of the head.

Two acquaintances of the writer were run down and killed by the cars in one year. Both had catarrh of the head, which had extended up the eustachian tubes, leading from the throat to the middle ear, and were quite hard of hearing. In both cases the coroner's jury decided that they came to their death because of inability to hear and heed signals that were intended for them. What happened to them is of frequent occurrence and in three cases out of four might have been prevented by the use of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets. These tablets cure all kinds of catarrh. They can be bought at any drug store for 50 cents a box.

That Stuart's Catarrh Tablets do effectually cure catarrh of the eustachian tubes and the head noises and deafness resulting therefrom is attested by the following:

Mrs. Jane Barlow, the famous modiste, says: "I finally had to give up personal attention to my customers, and in consequence many of them went elsewhere. I was in despair for specialists seemed powerless to help me. Stuart's Catarrh Tablets cured me in just a little while so completely that now I hear as well as ever."

Army Surgeon C. S. Beverly became so deaf from catarrh that he was forced to resign his position, and abandon his profession. He says: "Of course my inherent professional prejudice was hard to overcome, but knowing the great benefit you had received, my dear General, through the use of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, I used them. The great and almost immediate relief I experienced was truly astonishing. I am now entirely cured, and have no fear of the disease returning. I go back to my old post next month."

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets have done it, do do it, will do it. Try them and be convinced. They are for sale at any drug store at 50 cents a box. It will put you to very little trouble or expense to prove what they will do for you. Send to F. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich., for their free book about catarrh. A postal card will bring it. TALMAGE DANGEROUSLY ILL. Washington, March 25.—Dr. T. De Witt Talmage is lying dangerously ill at his residence on Massachusetts avenue in this city, and the gravest fears are entertained for his recovery. It was said today by a friend of the family that a fatal termination would not be a surprise. Dr. Talmage returned from a trip to Mexico a week ago. He was taken ill with a severe cold enroute to Washington, and has been since lying in a semi-conscious condition.

WALL BEGUN.

WILL KEEP WATER OUT OF THE ARMOUR BUILDING ON FIRST STREET.

The brick wall around one side of the new Armour building at First and Broadway has been commenced. It will be for the purpose of keeping the water out of the building during high stages of the river.

MISS HELEN GOULD

Washington, March 25.—John J. McCook, of New York, who took luncheon with President Roosevelt, extended the president an invitation to attend the dedication of the new building in Brooklyn that is to be known as the naval branch Y. M. C. A. of New York. Miss Helen Gould has spent about $400,000 in building and equipping this branch of the Y. M. C. A., and hopes to have the president attend the dedication next month. The president did not know whether he would be able to leave Washington at that time.

EDWARD EVERETT

HALE'S BIRTHDAY. Boston, March 25.—A celebration is planned for Rev. Dr. Edward Everett Hale's eighty-ninth birthday, April 8. The orator will be Senator Hagar, who has been for years one of Dr. Hale's closest friends and greatest admirers. Dr. Hale will respond to the senator's address.

Other features of the program will be responsive readings conducted by President Eliot of Harvard and appropriate musical selections.

AERIAL TORPEDO DEVICE.

London, March 25.—According to news from Stockholm, experiments have been made at Marula with the aerial torpedo invention of a Swedish commandant of artillery named Unga. The results are said to have been extremely satisfactory. The details are kept secret, but it has leaked out that the machine is not only an engine of destruction, but can be used for saving the lives of shipwrecked persons.

MARCONI SELECTS A SITE.

Halifax, N. S., March 25.—Sig. Marconi has definitely decided to locate his wireless station at Table Head, Glace bay, C. B. The machinery has been ordered, and work on the station will be commenced immediately. This station will be constructed before the one at Cape Cod.

"We Aim to Please and Satisfy the People"

To the Citizens of Paducah:

We desire to call your attention to the following statement made by twenty-five of the prominent business men of Lexington, Ky. (The original is on file and can be seen at our office):

LEXINGTON, KY., Feb. 8th, 1902.

To Whom It May Concern:

We, the undersigned citizens, business men of Lexington, Ky., are glad to state that the undoubted effect of the establishment of an independent telephone exchange in Lexington has been in every way beneficial to the business interests and social pleasure of the citizens of Lexington. The independent company has been in operation nine months, during which time the use of the telephone has increased over 150 per cent., and the efficiency and availability of the telephone for business purposes has increased beyond computation. Before the installation of the plant of the Independent Company there were less than 800 telephones in use in the city of Lexington. The Independent Company alone now has SIXTEEN HUNDRED AND EIGHTY-THREE telephones in Lexington and promises to have TWO THOUSAND within the next sixty days. The old company improved its plan as much as possible, and increased its efficiency in every way possible, upon the establishment of the Independent Company. The Independent Company put in a Central Energy Multiple Switchboard, with long distance instruments, which was a revelation to all those who had been accustomed to use the old system furnished by the Bell Company before the Independent Company started. We do not believe that there is a citizen of Lexington who would not most heartily endorse all that we have stated here, nor one who would agree under any circumstances to have the Independent Company stop operations.

QUESTION:—Paducah, a city nearly equal to Lexington in population, surpassing her in commercial importance—growing rapidly—can reap the same or more advantages of the great public utility by supporting The People's Independent Telephone Company. Our system will be the same as Lexington, and all we ask is the opportunity to prove our claims by thirty days' free trial of our telephones. Give your subscription to our solicitors, or send it to 415 1-2 Broadway.

SOME OF THE RULES FOR THE SICK ROOM.

All women are likely at some period of their lives to be called on to perform the duties of a sick nurse, and should prepare themselves as much as possible by observation and reading for the crisis in which they may be required to fulfill the office.

The main requirements are good temper, compassion for suffering, sympathy with sufferers, which most women worthy of the name possess, neat-handedness, quiet manners, love of order and cleanliness.

With these qualifications there will be very little to be wished for.

In the well-to-do family, when one of its members is taken sick, a professional nurse is generally called, but, nevertheless, there is always a period, even where this is done, of doubt and hesitation in regard to the development of the disease, when the careful nursing of the patient by his friends is most essential, and also in the mild attacks of influenza, of colds and the less serious accidents which are apt to befall the individual members of the household.

In the first stage of sickness, when doubt and perplexity hang over the household as to the nature of the sickness, there are some things about which no doubt exists.

The patient's room must be kept in perfectly pure state, as pure as the external air, without chilling the patient.

This can be accomplished by proper windows, open fireplaces and a careful observation of the thermometer.

The ventilation of the sick room comes most important in cases of contagious diseases.

Their communicability is much lessened by the proper precautions in regard to ventilation.

In these cases a sheet hung in the doorway kept moistened with some disinfectant is essential, but I do not wish to go into detail nursing.

Keep the room's temperature at 70° taking care, if the room contains a fire, that it burns clear and does not smoke or gas.

The floor of the room should be washed with a damp cloth every day if boarded, and swept with wet tea leaves if carpeted.

All utensils should be emptied and washed as soon as they are used, and once in twenty-four hours, as is sometimes done. A slop pail should enter a sick room, everything should be carried direct to the toilet and emptied there, and brought clear and clean. Chloride of lime should be used freely as a disinfectant. Attach no value to the burning of incense. They do not fumigate, and cloak a bad smell with a worse and do not remove the cause.

The following rules are most essential to the comfort of the patient:—

1. Talking.

2. Gossiping.

3. Above all, no whispering.

4. The latter is cruelty to a patient, who thinks his complaint is the subject of a bad smell with a worse and do not remove the cause.

5. Putting dresses.

6. Creaking shoes.

7. Mournful or woe-begone expressions.

8. Annoying questions.

Do not tell him how bad he looks. No superfluous furniture or knick-knacks in the room.

No overhead noises.

Don't stare at the patient.

Don't use a rocking chair or rumple a newspaper in the room.

No feather beds.

The bed should be narrow, as it is much easier to turn the patient.

When the patient leaves the bed open the sheets.

Don't dry or air anything damp in the sick room.

Always be hopeful and try to make yourself think that the patient will recover.

Don't question the patient as to his feelings every five minutes. Twice a day will at least satisfy your curiosity.

If you are very nervous and fidgety, take a room in the next house and call over the telephone if you have the welfare of your dear one and his friends at heart.

Don't smother of eucalypti. Patients' acute senses are easily annoyed.

Write down the doctor's orders when they are given, and don't let the patient run the risk of your forgetfulness.

Don't grab the patient by the back of the head and jerk him forward. Place the arm firmly behind his shoulders and lift slowly.

Don't let him view himself in a looking glass.

Don't have the room like a tunnel. Open wide the shades and shutters. Sunshine is essential.

When the patient is convalescing amuse him, not by your own stories, but by reading aloud.

Don't bring him a large plate full of food. Have everything separately and daintily arranged.

And finally, do nothing in the way of treatment on your own responsibility except in an emergency.—New York Press.

SCHOOL GIRLS.

School girls are proverbially pretty. Fact is, it's a pretty age—that time in a girl's life when she has all the beauties of womanhood without the later lines of care and worry.

But here and there even among school girls appear pale drawn faces—a dullness and lack of freshness which tells a plain story of thin blood.

Now this is not right. But Scott's Emulsion can make it right. Scott's Emulsion is what these pale girls need. Scott's Emulsion brings back the beauty to their faces because ORGANIZED LAST NIGHT.

KNIGHTS OF THE GOLDEN HORSESHOE ELECT OFFICERS AND HAVE BANQUET.

Deputy Supreme Organizer Husted last night instituted a branch of the Knights of the Golden Horseshoe at Elks' hall with a large membership. The order was founded under the laws of Virginia four years ago, and is growing rapidly. This is the sixth lodge to be formed in the state.

Mayor Yeiser acted as temporary chairman last night, and the following officers were elected: W. F. Bradshaw, Jr., commander; D. A. Yeiser, past commander; E. W. Bockmon, vice commander; G. W. Briggs, chaplain; James Caldwell, recorder; Richard Rudy, treasurer; Luke Russell, marshal; E. S. Burnham, watchman; Edward Toof, aide; E. B. Jones, guard; Edward Mumford, sentinel. Trustees, Samuel Hubbard, Charles Q. C. Leigh, W. J. Hills.

The following are members: D. A. Yeiser, J. R. Coleman, James M. Lang, Alexander Kirkland, G. W. Briggs, O. E. Whitesides, L. D. Sanders, R. D. Clements, F. E. Graves, T. B. Harrison, J. B. Moss, R. W. McCluney, W. F. Bradshaw, Jr., E. P. Noble, H. W. Shinn, R. C. Davis, W. A. Owen, J. L. Wolff, Irvin Cobb, Guy Holston, Richard Rudy, W. H. Hansbro, Charles Allcott, D. M. Flournoy, W. J. Hills, E. S. Burnham, F. C. Hassman, T. W. Dated, Fred Roth, George Langstaff, B. B. Griffith, J. R. M. Dillon, Wm. Borneman, J. J. Frenndlich, Sam T. Hubbard, E. W. Bockmon, B. B. Davis, R. M. Chastaine, J. F. Wistach, L. A. Graham, W. H. Parham, F. M. Bondurant, F. L. Brown, J. E. Rogers, F. M. Bernie, F. Adams, R. G. Caldwell, J. A. Bauer, Wm. McFadden, W. E. Cochran, R. H. Noble, P. F. Lally, E. H. Brughurst, H. L. Bradley, G. E. Phillips, J. S. Caldwell, E. L. D. Cook, E. W. Sartor, E. D. Hannou, J. B. Ray, P. H. Stewart, W. B. Kennedy, Link Russell, E. W. Mumford, Leon Glasses, Dow Wilcox, E. R. Miller, Rescoe Puryear, E. B. Jones, H. V. Sherrill and Charles Q. C. Leigh.

Refreshments and speeches enlivened the remainder of the evening and a pleasant time was spent by all.

The lunch was served by the ladies of the Y. M. C. A. committee, and was most delightful. The members felt very grateful to them.

Mr. Husted, the organizer, will remain here several weeks and get the lodge well established. It is expected 200 members will be enrolled.

PLANS OUTLINED.

LIBRARY BOARD WILL HAVE A ONE STORY BUILDING FOR LIBRARY.

The library trustees held a meeting last night in Architect Lassiter's office to decide on what they wanted in the way of a library building. They concluded they wanted a one story affair, with a basement, and will meet again when the plans have been begun.

The library building, according to the plans outlined last night, will have a basement similar to that of the custom house, and which will contain the furnaces, toilet room, water closets and similar appurtenances. At the Broadway side will be an entrance over a stone stairway leading into a wide corridor upon each side of which will be the reading rooms, one for the children and another for adults. The corridor will lead back to the center of the structure, where the library proper will be in a circular room with elegantly decorated dome. In there will be racks for the books, and to the left of the room will be the assembly room for the trustees of the library, while upon the opposite side will be situated the librarian's headquarters. Leading from the Ninth street side into the building will be another entrance, but into the basement, from which a stairway upon this side leads up to the first floor above.

At both sides of the corridor, coming in from Broadway, there will be cloak rooms. From that intended for the ladies a stairway will lead down into the basement.

TELEPHONE POLES

BUT THE RAILROAD OFFICIALS HAVE NOT BEEN APPRISED OF THEIR USE.

Two car loads of telegraph poles have been received by the I. C. here, but the local employees have not yet been apprised of how they will be used. There has been some talk of establishing a telephoning line on the Louisville division, instead of the telegraph system now in use, but nothing definite has been stated relative to this.

DAILY THOUGHT.

"It is our interest as an enlightened people to keep pure and high our educational standards. We cannot afford to see rushlights when the rest of the world uses electricity."

BAD DAY FOR BITES.

Mayor Pro Tem Charles Reed, who is already favorably mentioned as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for mayor next year, is a wise man. He was offered a position in the board of aldermen which he declined. He is now mayor pro tem of the council, and it is understood is a sort of thorn in the side of the administration, for he has always stood for progress and a great many other things that the other fellows have never advocated. It is certain that he will be speaker of the lower board when the general council is organized, for the same men who made him mayor pro tem will doubtless vote to make him their chairman. If he had resigned his place in the council it would have been only to become a simple alderman. Could he have become president of the board of aldermen, it would have been different. But he couldn't, for that place, it was understood in advance, goes to Mr. Ed P. Noble. Hence Mr. Reed didn't bite. He will remain in the council and become speaker of it.

Another feature of the benevolent offer of place as alderman was that there is a law which stipulates that no councilman shall hold any other city office during the term for which he was elected. A councilman is elected for two years, and being the term for which he is elected, the law is construed to mean that a councilman cannot hold any other office for two years, even though he resigns as councilman. Hence after councilman Reed resigned to take a place as alderman, the law might be sprung upon him, and he might be ousted on the ground that he couldn't hold any other office during the term for which he was elected councilman, two years, although no longer a councilman. Thus he would be prevented from acting as alderman, and having resigned in the council, would no longer be a councilman either. In short, he would be out of a job entirely.

But even if this construction could not obtain, Councilman Reed would still have been deprived of one year's service, as the aldermanic term appointed by the mayor is only until November, while his term in the council does not end for nearly two years.

It is not claimed that this little play was one to get Mayor Pro Tem Reed out of politics temporarily and out of the way of the administration, but it was a curious thing just the same, and Mr. Reed's friends are glad to see that he didn't take the cork under.

IMPROVING OUR WHARF

The attention of the people has been called to the wharf of Paducah, and while the council is about it, it might as well now, as at any other time, take steps to make it respectable looking. There are worse things about the wharf than the lack of room during high water. About thirty thousand dollars was spent on it in a lump once, and it has been getting worse ever since.

The city is now trying to get from the railroad company a strip of ground this ground, for if the railroad had not intended to keep it for its own use, it would have sold it long ago. Besides, the city is borrowing money constantly to meet expenses, and it will be a long time before there will be any money to spare for buying it, even if the railroad company was willing to sell or the city determined to condemn. Hence the council could apply its misdirected energies towards accomplishing something better than the purchase of the property.

For instance the wharf could be kept clean, and free from mud. The pavements on Broadway should be extended a portion of the way down the levee, at least, and not end at First street, leaving much mud to wade through in bad weather to reach the boats, no matter which way one goes. Few people know that there is another street below First, known as Water street. It is owned by the city, but has never been improved. This city property known as the wharf, however, has for years past been used as a dumping ground by both the boatstore and the ice factory, and it is claimed that the boat store has for years had a shed built on and projecting over city property. Yet the very people who have used the city's property for years free of charge it seems are the ones who are now making the most noise because some of the other property is being built up, as they built up their own.

The council should take up the wharf matter immediately, and do something to improve its appearance. It is a disgrace to the city, an eyesore to steamboatmen, and a curiosity to passengers on steamboats who see nothing like it anywhere else, even at some of the country landings. If the entire wharf were built up with houses it would at least improve its appearance.

It will not be long now until Cuba starts up in business for herself. And it is predicted that it will not be much longer until she gets tired and wants us to take charge again, or gets things into such a muddle that the situation will demand the services of the United States. The same principles, whatever they were, that prompted this government to take up Cuba's fight a few years ago, still hold good, and would necessitate our seeing that nothing goes amiss there now or hereafter.

Padorewski's latest antic was to demand that his sleeping car be so turned that his head could be towards England. Paddy must have it pretty bad. It took the railroad company nearly all night to find a turntable for the car. It would have been easier to tell him his hallowed head was towards England all the time, no matter which way it was, than to look for a turntable several hours and then have to turn the car on a bridge span.

General Miles is being scored by some of the Washington correspondents who know him and are not afraid to tell the truth, as a chronic sore head who seems to delight in causing the administration all the trouble and embarrassment he can, and causing all the confusion possible in the army. If he is retired things may run smoother. His successor will at least know more than to talk too much.

If Kentucky has an exhibit at the St. Louis exposition, it will have to be paid for by the citizens individually. The state has refused. If Kentucky does not have an exhibit, the millions of people who visit the fair will ask why, among all the many states, Kentucky was not represented. It is a very plain proposition, and the people should see to it that Kentucky is not left behind.

Judging from the positive declarations of the promoters of the three proposed railroads from Paducah to Cairo, all three will be built. No one would object seriously to three, or even a dozen, but what would become of the men who sink their money into the projects? It is likely that the one started the first will be the only one built.

It is not a hard matter for people who have lived here for years to know a man's qualifications for an office to which he is appointed. The people will shortly be able to ascertain whether it is politics or ability that are to be considered in the appointment of new city officials.

It would be courtesy due a defeated opponent to appoint former councilman G. R. Davis, and a candidate for the Democratic nomination for mayor, on the Board of Aldermen. But this does not seem to be a good year for courtesies.

trouble will soon be over.

Judge Saunders has decided he had better "look in the book and see."

ANNAPOLIS LIBERTY TREE.

Beneath This Tree Samuel Chase Arraigned King George.

The Washington elm is more widely known than any historic tree in America, but it must share with the Liberty tree of Annapolis the honor of playing a part in rocking the cradle of liberty. The Liberty tree is a tulip tree (Liriodendron tulipifera), sometimes also called tulip poplar. Tradition says that the people of Annapolis met in the troublous days before the revolution to consult together and listen to Samuel Chase in his arraignment of King George. At that time its spread of branches was far beyond anything known of it by this generation. It is also a tradition that Washington and Lafayette banqueted in its shade. The earliest tradition handed down to us of the imperial poplar tree that adorns the college campus is that it served as the canopy under which the colonists and Indians made a treaty of peace. As history records only one document of this kind signed here, this treaty must have been the one agreed between the colonists and the sturdy Susquehannocks in 1652. The next public use of it we find in "Edwards' Letters," was when the inhabitants assembled under it to determine whether or not persons who have not joined the Association of Patriots should be driven out of the colony. In 1825 Gen. Lafayette was entertained under it. About 1840 several youths were playing under this tree with that very dangerous but frequent adjunct of juvenile sport—gunpowder. They had about two pounds of it. They placed it in the hollow of the tree, where it was ignited and exploded, setting fire to the grand old tree. The citizens of Annapolis repaired in force for its rescue, the firemen bringing out the city fire engine and deluging the tree with water. The boys' escapade was no doubt greatly denounced, but the juveniles had done better than their denouncers thought or the juveniles intended. The tree had fallen into a state of decay that threatened its life. The next year it put forth its branches with its youth renewed. The explosion had destroyed the worms that were gnawing away its vitals. One-third of the trunk is gone and is now boarded up. The body of the tree is a mere shell—a marvel how its life can be maintained and thousands of tulips bloom on its branches in their season.—Chicago Journal.

DREAM WORTH A FORTUNE.

California Woman Utilized an Idea That Came to Her in Sleep.

A dream that came to Mrs. Jessie H. Higley of Niles, Cal., not long ago has proved to be worth at least $5,000 to her, and she may realize a much larger amount from it. She has been offered the sum named for the product of her dream, but regards it as worth far more and will refuse the offer. This utilitarian dreamer is the wife of Seward O. Higley, the station agent of the Southern Pacific company at Niles. They have lived in that quiet community for some years and Mrs. Higley's housewifely instincts have become proverbial. Her house is always "just so" and when things do not go right Mrs. Higley makes them go her way. If there is anything new that will add to the comfort of her home Mrs. Higley secures it. Among some of her recent additions to the household furniture are iron beds. The beds proved very good, but the artistic eye of the housewife was offended by the lack of drapeery about them. Then she found to her sorrow that there was no satisfactory method known to the trade of adding drapeery to an iron bed so that it could be removed quickly when cleaning or sweeping the room was in order. The lack of this contrivance was such an annoyance to the lady that she dreamed about it, and in that dream she saw just what was necessary to make the hearts of the housewives in the country glad. She did not wait for the dream to become dim, but got right up and made a rough drawing and description of what she had seen. The next day she worked it out carefully, had a sample made and a few days ago received her patent covering the invention. It is a little brass clip that fits about the posts and will hold cords or wires for carrying drapeery. It can be removed or attached in a second of time and once on the post is immovable until released by hand.—Chicago Chronicle.

Maine Beavers Dam a River.

The biggest beaver dam ever seen in Maine is now attracting hundreds of people to Caribou, on the Aroostook river. Two miles from the village the beavers have built a dam of logs and mud 250 feet long, raising the river back upon the lowlands for a distance of three miles and thus creating a great lake. Trees a foot in diameter have been cut down by the beavers, the branches trimmed off and the trunks in some mysterious manner brought to the dam and submerged. The dam is better than many on the river that have been built by men, and the Caribou people are rather proud of it. Over 1,000 beavers have worked hard on this job for several months and they will be allowed to remain in possession all winter.—Lewiston Evening Journal.

FORM FITTING ..CLOTHING..

We do not desire to be egotistic in our claims for the merits of our suits, but it is our belief that there has never been so PERFECT MADE and PERFECT FITTING Clothing brought to Paducah as our new Spring Suits. The art of manufacturing clothing improves from season to season, and it looks like they have JUST REACHED PERFECTION. The styles and patterns are the prettiest we ever saw. A great many shades of green prevail, with small broken stripes and plaids. We invite the public to pay our store a visit and verify the above statements. Our prices on men's suits are from $5.00 to $20.00. Don't fail to come this week and —The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Broadway Methodist church will meet on Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock with Mrs. Millicent Davis, 620 Court street. All members are urged to be present.

—Mr. Hardy Little has returned from Murray where he auctioned off several hundred head of horses and mules. He secured good prices for the stock and a good crowd was out to bid on the animals.

—There is much interest being manifested in the contest between members of the Red Men in the membership canvass, the tribe having been divided into two parts, the losers to wait on the others at the banquet following the contest. The new members will be secured in April only.

—"Two Little Waifs," a new play by Lincoln J. Carter, will be the offering at The Kentucky tonight. By some critics his new production is said to be the best in Carter's repertoire. Its initial performance in Chicago is reported to have met with signal success. The supporting company is said to be a strong and well selected. The scenery, electrical effects and mechanical devices are reported to be up to the Carter standard.

—Mrs. Jane Jackson, who was formerly employed on one of the steamboats but has been ill in the city hospital here for the past month from malarial fever, was sent to Henderson today by the authorities. She claims to have relatives there who will take charge of her.

—The many lights and shades that are constantly occurring in human life will be truthfully reproduced in the production of "The Village Parson" which comes to The Kentucky next Thursday. This play has been meeting with great success in all cities where presented and the numerous favorable comments that have been heaped upon it have been flattering to say the least. With a decidedly brilliant cast, and new and complete mounting, "The Village Parson" compares with any of the better class of melodramatic presentations of the current season.

—Mr. George Jackson has returned from Bonnie, Ill., where his mother-in-law, Mrs. Carolina Cox, died at the age of 80. The deceased resided at Bellevue, Mo., but was at Bonnie on a visit to her son when a paralytic stroke ended her life. Mrs. Robert Herring, of Memphis, another daughter, joined Mrs. Jackson here Saturday night and went to Bonnie. They will remain until after the funeral.

—Acting on the belief that the great majority of theatergoers enjoy seeing comeliness in womanhood as much as histrionic ability, Messrs. Goodhue and Kellogg have exercised unusual care in the selection of the feminine contingent exploited in their company of comedians presenting Willis Maxwell Goodhue's joyful oddity, "Hello Bill," the present season, and it is their belief that in the Misses Kath Holt Justus Wynne, Elenor Lawson, and Carolyn Allen Lee, they have a quartette which for beauty of face and figure cannot be surpassed by any traveling organization. "Hello Bill" is the attraction at The Kentucky for bargain matinee Saturday and Saturday night a popular price.

—"Sweet Clover," the very successful comedy drama in which Adelaide Thurston is to be seen here next Monday night is described as a play which bears out its homely title, inasmuch as it tells a story that is absolutely pure in its moral. Such plays are all the go nowadays, and generally prove permanent successes. In the title "Sweet Clover" one gets the pure smell of the country. The play, with so captivating an actress as Adelaide Thurston, who proved so delightful as Lady Babbie in "The Little Minister," should ensure an audience of the best element. Miss Thurston's support, headed by Otis B. Thayer, has been complimented elsewhere as a fine company of players. Seats on sale Saturday.

—The ladies of the First Presbyterian church will have a bazaar in the Fowler building on Broadway, next to Ogilvie and Company, on Friday and Saturday, March 28 and 29. Lunch will be served both days and all sorts of useful and fancy articles will be offered for sale. An attractive feature will be a Japanese tea served by young ladies in Japanese dress. All members are urged to send donations and the public is cordially invited to come. 1 wk

—This morning a country woman was wheeling her baby along the pavement in a buggy near the market when the buggy slipped over the edge of the pavement and turned over. The child was thrown out on one side of the face badly skinned but otherwise escaped injury. The woman's name could not be learned.

FORREST'S RAID.

This is the Anniversary—Some of the Scenes of the Event

There Was no Attack on the Fort Made by the Confederate Soldiers

It seems that today, instead of yesterday, is the anniversary of Forrest's raid on Paducah. The old soldiers sometimes get their dates mixed, and while many of them thought yesterday was the anniversary, most are certain that it is today, and history shows that it was today.

Mr. John J. Bleich, the well known jeweler, relates an interesting incident that has probably never been told before. When the news of the raid reached the city, women and children in great numbers flocked to the wharf, and boarded a small sidewheel steamer that was at the landing. No one could be found who remembered the name of the boat, but the crowd of three or four hundred was so great that she listed as the load pushed too far on one side or the other. Every time she would sway the screams that would go up from the throats of the women was something dreadful, and finally, to add to the fear and consternation of the situation, the boat caught fire.

She pushed to the Illinois shore, however, and landed her precious cargo safe and sound, but it was an awful trip. Mr. Bleich was aboard with his mother, and wonders how many are alive today who also made the trip, and if they remember it as vividly as he.

Mr. J. V. Grief, in criticizing the statement of some one in another paper, said this morning that the Confederate soldiers did not come here to make a raid on the fort, and did not make any. They did draw up within 300 yards of it, but turned and filed into an alley, and it was here that Colonel A. P. Thompson was killed. They had no twelve pound guns, but small ones that shot two-pound balls.

Our Millinery Opening will continue throughout this entire week. At this display is seen one of the most gorgeous and up-to-date lines of millinery ever exhibited in Paducah.

All the new shapes and styles, including the Gibson, Continental, Floradora and many other new creations, which are being constantly added.

No Further Trouble With the Leather Workers in Paducah

Agreement Signed Up Today—Men are Back at Work

The E. Rehkopf leatherworkers' trouble has been satisfactorily settled; the committee appointed to confer with Mr. Rehkopf, which effected the settlement, this morning waited on that gentleman again, and the agreement heretofore reached was signed, and everything is now running smoothly.

The trouble arose over the attempt of the foreman to place girls in the shop again, contrary to the agreement the proprietor made, and also a misunderstanding as to what constituted an apprentice boy. Any boy who does not do any mechanical work, who does not handle any of the work in any way by which he might learn the trade will be called a helper or a porter, while those who do assist in the making of the goods are termed apprentice boys. There will be one apprentice boy to every ten journeymen, and the number of porters will be governed as the proprietor sees fit.

Mr. John J. Pfeiffer of Chicago, the first vice president of the United Brotherhood Leatherworkers on Horse Goods, headed the committee, and effected the signature of the proprietor of the shops here.

Now that everything is understood, no more trouble is expected.

RAISED BILL.

IT IS A CLEVER DECEPTION—HELD AT A BANK.

A one dollar bill raised to a ten was presented to Mr. Dick Rudy at the Citizens' bank yesterday for deposit, and the change quickly detected. The gentleman who presented it does not know where he got it, and it takes an expert to notice the change at first glance. The 1's have all been covered with 10's, which show up very conspicuously. Some of the words in other places have been erased, and Mr. Rudy, as an experiment, has found that about nine people out of every ten will accept the bill as a tenner. There is no telling how long it has been in circulation, and there is no hope of catching the person who raised it.

NO TRIAL FOR SEDUCTION.

Charles Johnson who is in jail on two warrants, one for breach of the peace, and the other for gaming, will probably not be tried for the offense of alleged seduction as he has not given bond for the first two offenses and unless he does, can not be tried before the indictment for the offense by the grand jury. The latter charge was brought by Thomas Rushing, of the county, charging the seduction of his daughter.

KENTUCKY DAY AT CHARLESTON FAIR NOT FIXED.

The matter of "Kentucky day" at the South Carolina and West Indian Exposition at Charleston has not been definitely settled. It will be during April, but the exact date has yet to be decided. Within the next few days the arrangements will be completed and the day announced. It is now probable that April 24 will be selected. Governor Beckham will issue a proclamation when this is done and the Louisville Commercial club will try to work up a crowd. A rate of 50 percent of one fare for the round trip will probably be in effect.

Governor Beckham will not be able to go to Charleston. It is understood. In case he does not the ceremonies will be arranged to include some one else as orator of the day.

FOUR MORE CASES AND TWO DEATHS FROM THE PLAGUE—DISEASE IN THE PROVINCES.

Manila, March 25.—There have been four more cases of cholera here, and two more deaths from the plague are reported. The health authorities believe that their rigid precautions have averted an epidemic.

As General Chaffee did not want the men of the Third Infantry to run the risk of cholera as a result of contact with the city, that regiment has already been taken aboard the United States transport Grant, which will sail for San Francisco one week ahead of her scheduled time.

Five cases of cholera have been reported from the provinces.

TELEPHONE NEWS.

IT IS EXPECTED THAT PERMANENT ORGANIZATION WILL BE EFFECTED.

The articles of incorporation of the People's Telephone company, have been forwarded to the secretary of state, and by Saturday it is hoped that a return will be made which will enable the members of the corporation to effect a permanent organization, and to begin business in earnest.

If the return arrives on time, then the contract will probably be let next week.

BISHOP GAILOR

MENTIONED FOR OFFICE OF CONFEDERATE COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF.

Memphis, Tenn., March 25.—A strong movement has been set on foot in this city to secure the election of Bishop Thomas F. Gailor as the next commander-in-chief of the United Sons of Confederate Veterans. The N. E. Forrest camp of Memphis has unanimously endorsed him for the position, and a committee consisting of some of the most prominent and influential Sons of Veterans in the South called on the Bishop and prevailed upon him to allow the use of his name at Dallas next month under the following conditions: That his election be unanimous and that the military features of the organization be eliminated.

Promises of support have come from all parts of the country. Right Rev. Thomas F. Gailor, the Episcopal Bishop of Tennessee, is a Memphian of national reputation. He is noted as a gifted orator, and is very popular among the young men. His father was killed in the battle of Perryville.

LIVELY RUNAWAY.

A horse belonging to Commission Merchant Hawkins ran away on South Second street about 10 o'clock this morning, and would have dashed into Michael's store near Second and Broadway had it not collided with a buggy in front. The vehicle was damaged, and the horse was badly skinned up, but there was no further damage.

Our job work can't be excelled.

CONGRESSIONAL PRIMARY

Chairman Charles Emery Will Send A List to Chairman Ayers.

He is again Recognized as the Democratic County Chairman

Chairman Charles Emery of the Democratic county committee this morning received from District Chairman Mott Ayres the following letter:

Fulton, Ky., March 25.

Mr. Charles Emery, chairman, Paducah, Ky.

My dear Sir—

Kindly advise me at your earliest convenience the names of the various voting precincts in your county, and the number of ballots that will be needed in each of these precincts for holding a Democratic primary election on May 24 to nominate a candidate for congress in this district. Also let me know what expense will be for election officers in your county to hold said primary. An early reply will be appreciated.

Very truly yours,
Mott Ayres, Chairman.

Chairman Emery will follow out the instructions at once. This letter is only another evidence that Mr. Emery is recognized by the powers that be as the chairman of the Democratic county committee, and is another throw-down for the Potter crowd.

THE ELKS

Executive Committee to Meet Tonight
Arrangements Progressing.

In the Race for Queen Miss Martha Davis Leads—Other Notes

This morning the Elks committee placed streamers advertising the carnival on the various boats.

The executive committee expects to hold a meeting this evening and transact the usual routine business.

Secretary Henry P. Nunn, within all probability have a report showing everything done since the work of preparing for the carnival, for presentation to the lodge at its regular meeting Thursday night.

The committee has placed with Whitehead and Hogg, Newark, N. J., an order for a large number of the Elks buttons that are to be worn as advertisements for the carnival. Secretary Nunn has one of the samples, and the buttons are quite attractive.

A large number of posters and other advertising matter has been received from Boston and Co.

The following is the vote for queen of the carnival. Several other young ladies have votes, but they are not entered in the published lists until they have 75 or more:
